Celebrating Creativity and Knowledge

February was a month of celebration, talent, and intellectual growth at Loyola School. From melodious musical performances to literary brilliance and a passion for reading, our students showcased their extraordinary abilities in various fields.

Loyola Super Singers Contest was a grand celebration that resonated with the harmonious voices of our talented singers. The best singers from each section took centre stage in the grand finale and captivated the audience with their soulful performances. It was a moment of pride as we honoured the super singers of each section, acknowledging their dedication and passion for music. The event not only celebrated talent but also encouraged students to explore and refine their musical abilities.

Creativity took flight as every student became a writer! More than two thousand personal magazines were released. They showcased an incredible variety of literary and artistic expressions. From heartfelt experiences and true stories to imaginative poems and captivating narratives, students poured their thoughts onto paper, unveiling their inner authors and artists. Many of these magazines stood out for their exceptional quality and creativity. Loyola School is indeed nurturing a new generation of writers and thinkers, and this initiative reinforced the joy of self-expression and storytelling.

The love for reading continues to thrive at Loyola School, thanks to the monthly magazine distribution that cultivates reading habits and enhances general knowledge.

The Tik-Tik Lite Mega Quiz, based on the magazine content, motivated students to read and stay informed. In addition, students who demonstrated an exceptional appetite for reading were recognized and awarded. Their dedication to books not only broadens their knowledge but also strengthens their critical thinking skills. It is heartening to see parents actively supporting and encouraging this wonderful habit, fostering a culture of lifelong learning.

With the board examinations round the corner, the school atmosphere reflected an air of diligence and commitment. The academic journey of our students is marked by hard work and perseverance, and we wish them all success in their assessments.

February was truly a month of artistic, intellectual, and academic vibrancy at Loyola. As we move forward, we continue to nurture creativity, knowledge, and excellence in every student, inspiring them to reach greater heights.

L-GLORIA DAY

A Celebration of Talent and Triumph

L-Gloria Day, 7 February 2025, was a joyous occasion, a day dedicated to celebrating the hard work and achievements of our young stars. This special Merit Day honoured students who excelled in Kids Fest, Sports Day, and the ASISC Cultural Competition. It was a proud moment for Loyola as we secured the Second Runner-Up position in the ASISC Cultural Fest Competition, marking another milestone in our journey of excellence.

The event was gracefully hosted by Ms Siji Abraham, who kept the energy high and the excitement alive throughout the programme. The celebration began on a reverent note with a prayer led by Ms Aarathi Nair, invoking blessings for the bright future of our students.

Ms Veena V. then welcomed the gathering with warm words, setting the stage for an inspiring ceremony.

The Inaugural Speech was delivered by Fr Principal Salvin Augustine SJ, who encouraged students to continue striving for excellence in all their endeavours. The presence of our CBSE Principal Sr Jiji Thomas, Registrar Mr Joy M. Varghese, and our Bursar Fr Jose Thaiparambil SJ added to the significance of the event, as they stood in support of the students' achievements.

The most awaited moment of the day was the prize distribution ceremony, where winners of the Kids Fest, Sports Day, and ASISC Cultural Fest were honoured.

As the event neared its conclusion, Ms Ajitha Shibu delivered a heartfelt vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to everyone who contributed to making the day special. A special appreciation was extended to Programme Coordinator Ms Justicia Jerome, whose dedicated efforts ensured the seamless execution of the event.

L-Gloria Day was a celebration of passion, perseverance, and success—a day that not only recognized achievements but also inspired every student to dream bigger and reach higher. It was a day of pride, joy, and unforgettable memories for the Loyola family.
